

ALSAI and Civic Resistance organize the workshop “Presentation of Performance Audit Findings and Government Monitoring by Civic Resistance”

On 26 January 2024, it was held at the premises of the Albanian Supreme Audit Institution (ALSAI) the workshop on “Presentation of Performance Audit Findings and Government Monitoring by Civic Resistance”.

The meeting was attended by auditors from the Performance Audit Department, as well as a team of analysts from Civic Resistance.

Non-governmental organizations and other stakeholders are strategic allies of a Supreme Audit Institution such as ALSAI. The Performance Audit Department has established channels of communication with several of these stakeholders and continuously strives to expand and strengthen such cooperation. This is also the case with Civic Resistance, with which ALSAI has maintained a long-standing and fruitful cooperation.

During the meeting with Civic Resistance, among the numerous performance audit topics carried out by the Department covering various areas, including education, culture, agriculture, the environment, social care, infrastructure and transport, economic development, healthcare, and others, the opinions, findings, conclusions and recommendations of the following performance audits were presented:

1. “Police Services in Response to Citizens”, which focused primarily on the activities of police structures in providing high-quality services to meet citizens’ needs.
2. “Effectiveness of the System for the Protection of Victims of Domestic Violence, with a Focus on Abused Women”, which focused on the measures taken by the responsible institutions, as well as the administrative processes aimed at ensuring the effective functioning of the system for the protection, support and rehabilitation of victims and the prevention of violence against women within family relationships.
3. Ensuring the Protection of Copyright, an audit which focused on the policies and responsibilities of state institutions in ensuring the proper administration and protection of copyright.

Furthermore, during the meeting, the analysts from Civic Resistance discussed their analyses and monitoring activities concerning:

4. “Wage Growth Amid the Price Crisis.”
5. “Challenges of the Vetting Process in the State Police”.

6. “Effects of the Draft Law on Gambling”.

In conclusion, the participants discussed the topics, expressing their strong appreciation for the cooperation established to date, as well as the importance of such meetings for the exchange of experiences and best practices.
