

ALSAI representatives attend the meeting organized by the Center for the Study of Democracy and Governance

25 September 2024

Representatives of the Albanian Supreme Audit Institution (ALSAI) attended the meeting organized by the Center for the Study of Democracy and Governance on “Assessing Performance and Progress: A Comprehensive Review of the Role of SPAK and the Special Courts in the Fight against Corruption and Organized Crime (2020–2023)”, which was held at the Rogner Hotel.

This assessment focused on the involvement of all national and international stakeholders, encouraging each to contribute to supporting Albania’s efforts to meet European Union standards, with the fight against corruption and organized crime representing one of the country’s most significant challenges.

The meeting also addressed the role and contribution of state and public institutions, organizations, and civil society in strengthening cooperation with these structures, with the aim of ensuring an objective, critical, comprehensive, and independent assessment of efforts to combat corruption and organized crime.
