

The delegation of ALSAI participates in the activities marking the 25th Anniversary of the Establishment of the State Audit Office of the Republic of North Macedonia

On 26 - 27 November 2024, the delegation of the Albanian Supreme Audit Institution (ALSAI) participated in the activities organized to mark the 25th anniversary of the establishment of the State Audit Office (SAO) of the Republic of North Macedonia.

To celebrate this anniversary, a conference organized by SAO and partially supported by EUROSAI, was held in Skopje under the theme “Exchange of Experiences in Supreme Audit Institutions’ Communication Processes with Stakeholders – Opportunities and Challenges.” The conference brought together experts from various international organizations, Supreme Audit Institutions, and professional organizations.

The first session of the conference focused on transparency and the importance of clearly communicating audit findings as a basis for building trust and encouraging timely responses, while the second session was dedicated to the use of innovative communication tools and technologies that enhance the audit process and increase transparency.

During his opening remarks at the conference, Mr. Acevski, the State Auditor General, thanked the participants for their attendance and highlighted the institution’s achievements to date as evidence of its commitment to transparency, accountability, and good governance. He also emphasized the importance of building strong partnerships and fostering trust among all stakeholders. The conference continued with remarks from representatives of Parliament, embassies, international organizations, the media, as well as the Supreme Audit Institutions of Israel, Norway, Kosovo, and Bulgaria. They extended their congratulations on the anniversary of the establishment of the State Audit Office of the Republic of North Macedonia and highlighted its key achievements over the years in their respective areas.

In conclusion, Mr. Acevski emphasized the significance of this important milestone for the SAO, not only as an opportunity to commemorate its 25-year history, but also to look towards the future, reaffirming its commitment to the principles of impartiality, transparency, and the continuous development of audit processes and public accountability.

The event also provided an excellent opportunity for representatives of the Albanian Supreme Audit Institution, the National Audit Office of Kosovo, and the State Audit Office of the Republic of North Macedonia to meet and exchange views.
