

Delegation of the Albanian Supreme Audit Institution participates in activities marking the 30th Anniversary of the Establishment of the Croatian State Audit Office

The delegation of the Albanian Supreme Audit Institution (ALSAI), represented by Ms. Valbona Gaxha, Secretary General; Mr. Bledar Doracaj, Director of the Local Self-Government Audit Department; Ms. Joana Troqe, Director of the State Budget Audit Department; and Mr. Paolo Xhezo, Director of the Department for the Audit of Defense, Security and Public Property, participated in the activities organized to mark the 30th anniversary of the establishment of the Croatian State Audit Office, held in Zagreb from 20–21 November 2024.

During the opening remarks, Mr. Ivan Klešić, Auditor General, thanked the participants for their attendance and highlighted the institution's achievements to date as evidence of its commitment to transparency, accountability and good governance.

The conference continued with remarks from representatives of the Finance and State Budget Committee of the Croatian Parliament, the Ministry of Finance, academic institutions, as well as the Supreme Audit Institutions (SAIs) of Austria, Slovakia, the Czech Republic, Slovenia and Montenegro. They extended their congratulations on the anniversary of the establishment of the Croatian State Audit Office and highlighted its key achievements over the years in the respective areas.

In conclusion, Mr. Klešić expressed both his own and the Croatian State Audit Office's commitment to improving the institution's performance and strengthening cooperation with peer SAIs in areas of mutual interest, with the aim of exchanging best practices and experiences in audit quality.
